PLAINTIFFS' PROPOSED MODIFICATION TO SCHEDULING ORDER

Plaintiffs, by and through their undersigned counsel, respectfully move this Court to modify the Proposed Scheduling Order to allow for discovery prior to the Add/Amend Deadline.

In support of this Notice, Plaintiffs state the following:

1. This Court's Proposed Scheduling order of March 15, 2006, proposes a deadline to add parties of April 15, 2006.

2. Upon information and belief, this case potentially involves copyright infringement of more than just the Defendant. Plaintiffs believe discovery will quickly be able to confirm or deny this.

3. In the event this belief turns out to be true, Plaintiffs would like to be able to add additional parties. The current deadline of April 15, 2006 does not allow enough time for discovery prior to having to do so. Thus, Plaintiffs respectfully request this Court modify the Proposed Scheduling Order to have the Add/Amend deadline moved to June 15, 2006.

4. Plaintiffs have contacted Defendant and he has agreed to the modification.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs respectfully ask this Court to alter its Proposed Scheduling Order and move the Add/Amend deadline to June 15, 2006.

Respectfully submitted,

Soble Rowe Krichbaum, LLP

Dated: March 28, 2006
